Above (L-R): Town of Port Hedland Certificate III in Local Government graduates Zoe Smith and Ashley O'Brien with Bruce Wright, Manager of Infrastructure Operations

LGA30120 Certificate III in Local Government

The LGA30120 Certificate III in Local Government course is aimed at new or existing employees who are working in a Local Government.

The program covers the skills and knowledge to perform the wide scope of duties that are required in the Local Government sector. This includes the understanding of the functions, roles and diverse services that a Local Government in Western Australia offers and reflects on legislative obligations and duties for various roles in the workplace.

This course is an ideal start for people new to Local Government or Officers who wish to advance their career prospects. Prospective students would already be employed in a Local Government in WA. They might be working in customer service, finance, people and culture, parks and gardens, or any other role in a Local Government.

The qualification has been developed according to the requirements of the Local Government Training Package (LGA) and has been approved for delivery by the Training Accreditation Council (TAC).

All learning resources have been specifically developed and contextualised for Local Governments in Western Australia.

Entry Requirement

- Completion of Year 10 or equivalent

Course Duration

The recommended time frame to complete the Certificate III course is 12 months.

Delivery Method

Students will attend a once a week, 3.5 hour virtual classroom sessions via Zoom. The course is delivered over 4 study terms of 10 weeks each. Training does not run during the school holidays.

Certification

On successful completion of this course and if you have been found to be competent in relation to each of the Units of Competency, you will be issued with an AQF Qualification LGA30120 - Certificate III in Local Government.

If you wish to exit the program prior to completion of the course you will be issued a Statement of Attainment.

Our Shire Admin/Records Officer completed this program and has learnt valuable skills and information regarding Local Government regulations, general operations and specifics of areas such as financial reporting. The program was of minimal disruption to normal Shire office operations.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I choose my elective units?

In Term 3, WALGA Training offers 2 different elective streams. For more information see page 3.

How long is the Certificate III program?

The standard delivery duration is 12 months. If a learner has prior learning such as a direct Credit Transfer, the duration may be shortened. If a learner faces challenges such as learning barriers or unexpected changes in their personal circumstance, the program can be extended.

I work in a regional Local Government – how can I access training and is there support?

Training is delivered via ZOOM and the trainer/assessor will support the learner via the virtual classroom, phone calls and email on nominated training days.

In addition, the trainer/assessor will follow up and communicate with the supervisor from time to time to report on progress and discuss any arising issues to ensure successful completion. To participate, you will need to have a quiet room or study area, a laptop or PC with a camera and audio capabilities, and a reliable WiFi connection. Each participant will be provided with access to our designated Student Portal (aXcelerate), where they can access all resources, the learning plan, ZOOM access codes and assessment tools.

Who can undertake a Traineeship?

The Certificate III in Local Government Traineeship is available to new employees only. This is defined as a person who starts their employment with an employer under a training contract, or has been employed with the same employer for less than 3 months full-time or less than 12 months permanent part-time/casual, or a combination equivalent to more than 3 months full-time.

How do I register a trainee?

The employer needs to contact an Apprentice Connect Australia Provider to determine eligibility and to nominate WALGA as their Training Provider. The Provider will register the trainee on the WA Apprenticeship Management System (WAAMS). Employers will also need to register themselves on WAAMS to manage variations and process incentive payments. For more information on how to start the registration process, please visit www.apprenticeships.gov.au.

Who is eligible for a Jobs & Skills WA funded Traineeship?

Only Traineeships who have been deemed eligible via an Apprentice Connect Australia Provider are funded through Jobs & Skills WA. In addition, a registered trainee must meet the eligibility criteria set by the Department of Training and Workforce Development (DTWD).

The following enrolment categories will not be funded:

- Persons whose primary place of residence is not in Western Australia;
- Residents of Christmas Island or Cocos Island;
- Persons who are neither Australian citizens nor permanent residents of Australia unless they are holders of approved Visa subclasses described in the Fees and Charges Policy;
- Prisoners;
- Secondary school Students except students undertaking a school-based Traineeship;
- Persons under 15 years of age.

You are eligible for a subsidised training place if you have left school, your primary place of residence is in Western Australia and you are:

- An Australian citizen or Permanent Resident of Australia;
- Holders of a sub-class 309, 444, 785, 790, or 820 visa;
- Secondary holders of a temporary visa of sub-class 457; and
- Holders of a Bridging Visa E (subclasses 050 and 051) where the visa holder has made a valid application for a visa of subclass 785 or 790.

Who is eligible for the concession course fee?

Persons and dependants of persons holding:

- A pensioner concession card;
- A repatriation health benefits card issued by the Department of Veterans' Affairs; or a Health Care Card;
- Persons and dependants of persons in receipt of the Youth Allowance, AUSTUDY or ABSTUDY;
- Persons and dependants of persons who are inmates of a custodial institution;
- Secondary school-aged persons, not enrolled at school;

Detailed information regarding eligibility can be found at the Department's VET fees and charges policy www.dtwd.wa.gov.au/sites/default/files/uploads/dtwd-ppr-vet-fees-charges-july2022.pdf

Can I apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)?

The RPL process implemented by WALGA Training is based on assessment only. Therefore, participants will be required to complete all assessment activities for each Unit. Contact WALGA Training to establish if you have sufficient knowledge and practical experience to meet the Unit requirements.
