

Past Climate Change Collaborators Event Presentations
November 2017	Alastair Leith and Rob Phillips from Sustainable Energy Now provided a presentation on the future of renewables on the South West Interconnected System. Annabelle McGuinness from City of Fremantle, Kylie Wrigley from City of Canning and Jeremy Manning from City of Swan gave an overview of their Councils experience with the Cities Power Partnership Program and John Filippone from WALGA presented on WALGA's Sustainable Procurement Project. The presentations can be found below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The future of renewables on the South West Interconnected System (Rob Phillips, Sustainable Energy Now) • Cities Power Partnership Program (Annabelle McGuinness, City of Fremantle) • WALGA's Sustainable Procurement Project (John Filippone, WALGA)
August 2017	In lieu of its August Climate Change Collaborator's meeting, WALGA ran a special half day forum Climate Change, Risk and Liability alongside the Local Government Convention on Friday, 4 August. The presentations for the event are below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business not as usual: consideration of climate change in organisational governance and business models (Hon Cheryl Edwardes AM, FTI Consulting) • Climate change and local government liability risks (Paul McBride, Senior Risk Consultant – Legal, LGIS) • Ensuring the appropriate development of vulnerable coastal lands (Ashley Robb, PhD Candidate, CUSP) • Managing the impact of climate change on health and wellbeing at the local level (Dianne Katscherian, WHO Collaborating Centre for EIA, Curtin University) • Understanding and managing flood risk in the Swan and Helena Rivers (Joanne Woodbridge, Acting Manager Environmental Services, EMRC)
May 2017	James Eggleston and Paula Hansen from Curtin University Sustainability Policy (CUSP) Institute gave a presentation on Compact City Planning Driving Innovation in Energy, and Jean Palutikof from NCCARF, Griffith University presented on NCCARF's work on CoastAdapt. Their presentations can be found below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compact City Planning Driving Innovation in Energy (James Eggleston and Paula Hansen from Curtin University Sustainability Policy (CUSP)) • Introducing NCCARF and Our Work (Jean Palutikof)
February 2017	Glenn Cook from the Bureau of Meteorology (BOM) gave a BOM/CSIRO State of the Climate 2016 presentation. You can view a range of State of the Climate materials on the BOM website here, including the report at a glance, full report and a range of short video presentations.
September 2016	The South West Group and WALGA held a Climate Change Forum as part of the Climate Change Collaborators events, which was hosted by the City of

	Cockburn. The program and information on the speakers can be found here, and the presentations can be found below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ecosystem Based Climate Adaptation Program (Ian Shears, City of Melbourne) • Nation-wide Rollout of Energy Efficient Street Lighting - Watts Happening Down Under! (Paul Brown, Ironbark Sustainability) • Climate Change Adaptation Policies and Initiatives (James Duggie, Office of Climate Change) • Helping Local Governments Respond to the Climate Change Challenge (Annabelle Stewart, WALGA) • A Five Year Journey (2011-2016) (Craig Perry, Peron Naturalist Partnership) • Coastal Climate Change Vulnerability and Flexible Adaptation Planning: the Cockburn Sound Coastal Alliance Experience (Doug Vickery, City of Cockburn) • Local Government in Action (Cr Jon Strachan, City of Fremantle) • Regional Climate Research and Lessons Learnt from Climate Change Tour (Mick McCarthy, South West Group) Following the presentations a workshop was held to identify the priority actions required to assist Local Governments in responding to climate change, and who should have responsibility for these actions. A summary of the workshop findings can be found here.
June 2016	Joyce Erceg from 350.org discussed how 350.org seeks to encourage individuals, institutions, Local and State Governments, and corporations to participate in divestment as we move towards a low carbon economy. Glen Dougall from the City of Fremantle, discussed the divestment process for the City of Fremantle and outlined the factors that need to be considered when divesting from fossil fuels. Their presentations can be found below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Local Government, Conversations and Divestment (350.org) • Divestment: Investing in Carbon Friendly Institutions (City of Fremantle)
March 2016	The Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO) and the Department of Planning presented on urban and regional monitoring. Their presentations can be found below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Urban and Regional Monitoring using Hi-resolution Imagery and Elevation Data (CSIRO) • Urban Forest Perth and Peel: CSIRO Urban Monitor 2009 and 2014 (Department of Planning)