

WALGA Event: Renewable Technologies

Date: Thursday, 29 November 2018
Time: 9:30am – 3:00pm (Registration from 9:00am)
Venue: WALGA, ONE70, LV1, 170 Railway Parade, West Leederville, WA 6007
Cost: $88.00 (incl GST)

FORUM OVERVIEW

Please join us for this fantastic opportunity to hear about existing and emerging renewable technologies, and the opportunities these technologies provide for Local Governments to reduce energy costs, increase amenity and improve service reliability.

PROGRAM

- 9:30am Welcome and Introduction
Laura Simes and Craig Perry, Environment Policy Advisors, WALGA
- 9:40am Clean Energy Innovation Hub – Green Hydrogen
Sam Lee Mohan, Project Director, ATCO Gas
- 10:10am Western Power and Innovation – the Community Battery Trial in Meadow Springs
Ben Stanton, Business Development Manager, Western Power
- 10:40am Re-imagining the Electricity Market
Marrah Fry, Project Analyst and Sarah Graham, Policy Analyst, Power Ledger
- 11:10am Morning tea
- 11:30am Developing Community Renewables During a Time of Disruption
Steve McGill, Energy Chair, Augusta Margaret River Clean Community Energy
- 12:00pm Cockburn ARC – A next generation community facility
Brett McEwin, Cockburn Aquatic & Recreation Centre, Manager, City of Cockburn
- 12:30pm Toyota Australia Fuel Cell Project
Troy D’Souza, Senior Engagement and Education Specialist, Toyota
- 1:00pm Lunch
- 2:00pm South Fremantle Solar Farm Proposal
Louise Ainsworth, Senior Strategic Projects Officer, City of Fremantle
- 2:30pm State Government – Renewable Energy Policy
Rosh Ireland, Director Energy Industry Development, Department of Treasury
- 3:00pm Close of Event